President's Report

Hello Everyone,

We had a wonderful time at 2004 AirVenture Oshkosh. Gerry Scampoli, Tom Boyle, Luis Bartolomey, and I drove Tom's van to Camp Scholler. Chip Diggins and his wife arrived before we did and saved us a beautiful site to set up camp. In a crowd of 750,000 people and 10,000 airplanes we found Seggy. I wish more of Chapter 279 could have joined us. I hope to have many pictures to show you at the meeting.

I learned a lot about Sport Pilot while at Oshkosh and it has one major drawback that will not help some of us. The sport pilot rule states that if an individual's most recent application for an FAA medical certificate has been denied, suspended, or revoked, that person may not use a driver's license as a medical certificate until the denial is cleared from the record.

It is important that people understand the correct status of their FAA medical certificate. This provision affects only those who have received a denial, suspension, or revocation letter from the FAA.

Jim

Help Wanted

Another fly-in breakfast is approaching. Sunday, August 15 from 8:00 to 11:00am will be our fifth breakfast of the 2004 season, with two to go after that.

Huge thanks go out to all the dedicated volunteers who staff the breakfast, doing everything from cooking the eggs and pancakes to keeping the coffee pots full. We especially need help in the kitchen, to relieve the cooks on a regular basis. If you can at all possibly make it to the breakfast this month, please spend a little time volunteering so that nobody gets overloaded with the work.

These fly-in breakfasts are what keep the doors open at the EAA building at Cranland. They pay for the electricity, gas, and other utilities we use. We need all members who can volunteer a little time, just once a month, to support the organization.
